

EXHIBIT I

EXHIBIT I

PLR 4-3(a) – Constructions on Which the Parties Agree

	Claim Term / Phrase	Agreed Construction
1.	entity 891.1	Any person or organization.
2.	generating 861.58	Producing.
3.	govern, governed, governing 891.1, 683.2	See Control (v.).
4.	metadata information 861.58	Information that describes one or more attributes of other data, and/or the processes used to create and/or use that data. For example, metadata information may describe the following attributes of other data: its meaning, representation in storage, what it is used for and by whom, context, quality and condition, location, ownership, or its data elements or their attributes (name, size, data type, etc.)
5.	rendering 193.11, 193.15, 193.19	In the context of 193.11, 15 and 19: Playing content through an audio output (e.g., speakers) or displaying content on a video output (e.g., a screen).
6.	secure container rule 683.2	A “rule” that governs (Controls) a Secure Container “governed item.”
7.	security 721.1, 721.34	See Secure.
8.	tampering 683.2, 721.1, 721.34, 900.155	Using (e.g., observing or altering) in any unauthorized manner, or interfering with authorized use.
9.	“said mass storage storing tamper resistant software” 900.155	The “tamper resistant software” is physically stored within, as opposed to being merely “addressed” by, the mass storage.
10.	“including using said key to decrypt at least a portion of said first digital file” 193.19	The “at least one use of said digital file” must encompass decrypting at least a “portion” of the “digital file” using the “key.”